About Us

Incorporated in the year 2010 as a Sole Proprietorship business firm, A. C. Enterprises, a Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh based organization is revered as one of the trusted names involved in manufacturing and supplying exclusive range of Chillers and Storage Chambers. Our product range includes Cold Storage Chambers, Ripening Chambers and Blast Freezer Chamber. Entire range offered by us is widely cherished in the market for stable operation, compact design, easy to install and operate, high quality, durability, easy to clean, energy saving, dimensionally accurate and reliable. We develop our range; we make use of superior quality material and components that are sourced from trusted market vendors. Besides, we utilize sophisticated designing patterns to ensure that our range is developed as per Global Designing Standards. We follow Total Quality Management (TQM) approaches to ensure that our range is superior in quality and flawless in nature. Apart from that, we have established an in-house quality monitoring unit that is responsible for maintaining quality management throughout the product development. Before being offered in the market, our range is doubly tested to remove any possibility of flaw.

Our infrastructure efficiently performs every task undertaken by our organization. Our infrastructure is broadly divided into manufacturing, quality monitoring, warehousing and packaging, quality monitoring and marketing and sales. All these specified...
